Kevin Jabusch

President and CEO, Enhance Energy Inc.

Since 2015, Kevin Jabusch has been the President and CEO of Enhance Energy Inc. After receiving his Professional Engineering degree from the University of Saskatchewan, Kevin went on to gain a wide range of technical, operational, financial and commercial experience. Kevin began his career as a Production and Reservoir Engineer with Dome Petroleum where he was involved in the operation and development of Alberta's largest Enhanced Oil Recovery project. Over the last three decades, Mr. Jabusch has led a number of successful energy development companies but is currently guiding the efforts of Enhance Energy to be Canada's preeminent low-carbon energy producer.

Kerry Margetts

President, NWR Partnership

Kerry Margetts joined NWR in 2016 as Chief Operating Officer and was appointed President in 2017. Since graduating as a Chemical Engineer from Queen's University in Kingston, Ontario, Kerry has gained over 35 years of experience in the refinery and petrochemical industry. Prior to joining NWR, some of Kerry's roles included being Shell's Ontario Distribution Manager, the General Manager of Shell's Sarnia Refinery and Chemical Plant, and his final role as their General Manager for Contracting and Procurement. Over the years, Kerry has gained hands-on experience in safety, external relations, industrial relations, maintenance, operations and large turnarounds, which makes him a valuable asset to Alberta's newest stand-alone refinery.

Jeff Pearson

President of the Carbon Business Unit, Wolf Midstream

Jeff Pearson is charged with oversight of Wolf's Carbon Business Unit, which includes responsibility for the Alberta Carbon Trunk Line system, as well as new business development in the carbon space. He joined Wolf in 2018 and brought a robust engineering background and more than 20 years of diversified experience across the oil and gas sector. After graduating as an Engineer from the University of Alberta, Jeff went on to earn his MBA from the Tuck School of Business Dartmouth. Jeff is a Professional Engineer and holds an ICD.D designation from the Institute of Directors. Before Wolf, Jeff was Vice President Business Development and Strategy at Veresen Midstream LP, Manager of Business Development at TAQA North, Vice President at ARC Financial and a Strategy Consultant at McKinsey & Co.
